TGIF

Kick-off the weekend with the traditional GSBSLU crawfish boil tonight beginning at 6:30 pm at the LSU Mini-Barn (91 Ag Center Dr, Baton Rouge, LA 70803). For those who aren't on the crawfish train, we'll also have jambalaya, chicken, and salad. See you there!

EVALUATIONS

Reminder: the evaluation portal opens at noon today and all evaluations must be completed before you're able to access your exam.

Good luck!

Saturday STEAK NIGHT

For anyone sticking around campus this weekend, The 459 has a special dinner menu planned for Saturday night. Grilled sirloin, stuffed mushrooms, spinach dip, cowboy caviar, and mashed potato bar are some of the highlights.

FUN FACT: Louisiana produces roughly 90% of the United States crawfish supply with an annual harvest of 120-150 million pounds. Breaux Bridge, Louisiana is known as the Crawfish Capital of the World.

NEW WISDOM WITH DAVID PETERSON

David Peterson is a nationally recognized speaker and innovation strategist who helps organizations build cultures that drive growth, creativity, and accountability. As Chief Innovation Officer at First National Bankers Bank, he focuses on helping teams rethink status quo thinking and embrace innovation at every level of an organization. ## BANK STUDY PROJECTS

FR & JR bank study projects are posted in your Canvas accounts and we encourage you to print them when you get back to your banks.

Bank study projects must be uploaded to Canvas by midnight on the 15th of the month in which they are due. Projects will be graded and returned to you via Canvas. If you believe that the grader has erred in the evaluation, you have two weeks to request a re-grade, sent via email to the GSB office. Your first project is due September 15th, be sure to mark your calendars!

WEEKEND ACTIVITY IDEAS:

I'm sure most of you already have your weekend planned out, but if you're in need of some suggestions, have no fear!

If you decide to stay in BR this weekend, there's plenty for you to do. You could pay Mike the Tiger a visit over by the stadium, visit The State Capitol building (the tallest state capitol building in the US), if you're into pickle ball check out Court to Table (you might even run into Lane Kiffin... might still be a sore subject for our Ole Miss fans), drive up to St.

Francisville to tour the famously-haunted Myrtles Plantation and dine at Restaurant 1796. If you're a sushi or rooftop dining fan, you can check out Tsunami Downtown. It offers a view of the Mississippi River that you can't get anywhere else! The Colonel's Club & Supper Club offer a fun, fine dining experience and The Colonel's Club even has a piano bar!

If you plan to go to NoLa and stay overnight, don't leave BR without a reservation. It would also be a good idea to stay in groups in well-traveled areas such as the French Quarter, St. Charles Avenue, Magazine Street, etc.

Whatever you decide to do, we hope you have a wonderful and safe weekend. Feel free to share pictures of your adventures for potential social media highlights to victoria@gsblsu.org. See you Sunday evening and as always...

Geaux Tigers!
